

ThreeFold ministries

Ecclesiastes 4:12 "...a cord of three strands is not quickly broken."

Carol Sallee is a Bible teacher and inspirational speaker; Amy Hill is a singer and worship leader. Through the course of fulfilling their individual calls to ministry, Carol and Amy encountered multiple opportunities to minister together at conferences and retreats. As they discovered a mutual passion for devotion to God, a new and exciting venture was formed: ThreeFold Ministries. This name describes the threefold partnership Carol and Amy want to create with your group to know Christ, to grow in Christ, and to echo His heart to the world.

carol sallee

www.carolsallee.com

Meet Carol Sallee

Carol is an inspirational speaker and writer. As a Bible teacher for over thirty years, Carol's passion is to know Christ and to make Him known. Through her ministry, Carol speaks across the United States and writes for numerous Christian publications, including LifeWay Christian Resources. Carol's speaking style is full of humor, enthusiasm, and a zeal for God's Word. Her down-to-earth manner is appealing as she takes a realistic approach to living the Christian life. Carol and her husband, Phil, are the parents of three young adults. Phil and Carol currently serve as Senior Pastor and wife at New Beginnings Church in Bixby, Oklahoma.

amy hill

www.amyhillministries.com

Meet Amy Hill

Amy has led worship for twenty years at retreats, conferences, camps and concerts. She has three worship albums including You Can Do More, Sit With You Awhile and Lord of My Life. Amy also made an album with her daughter, Kayleigh, called Froot Loops: Worship for Kids. Her beautiful voice and passion for worship have taken her across the United States engaging and encouraging audiences as she leads and teaches about living life as an act of worship before God. Amy and her husband, Charles, have two young daughters and currently serve at Green Country Baptist Camp in Disney, Oklahoma.

